

End of Life Options:

Own Your Journey

Tuesday, June 4, 2019 • 7:00–8:30pm

Champaign Public Library • 200 West Green St., Champaign
1st Floor • Robeson Pavilion Room B

In this presentation, Kim Callinan, CEO of Compassion & Choices, will address how to:

- Become an empowered consumer who learns to ask questions and consider treatment options before an illness becomes life limiting.
- Assess your values and priorities so you know how to make treatment decisions that will allow you to “finish strong.”
- Plan for your death so you can give your family the gift of clarity and yourself the peace of mind that comes with knowing you have taken the appropriate steps to avoid unnecessary suffering and realize a peaceful death.
- Join the movement of people who are seeking to expand option available to patients at life's end, including the option for an eligible terminally ill person to end one's life peacefully and with dignity if their suffering becomes too great.

Presenter

Kim Callinan has been the Chief Executive Officer at Compassion & Choices since February 1, 2018. In this capacity, she leads the largest national organization committed to improving care and expanding choice at the end of life. Kim regularly authors thought-leadership pieces that detail the stark contrast between what consumers want and existing policies and practices in end-of-life care. She is frequently asked to speak at conferences, testify before state legislatures, conduct policy briefings and serve on committees as a subject matter expert. Kim has been interviewed by top national media outlets such as USA Today, Yahoo News, The Washington Post, The Washington Times, Vox and countless state outlets.
