CAPE Universal Inaugural Multicultural Youth Awareness Arts Festival in collaboration with Health Delray Beach, Get Your Green On, resiliency and community healing. The festival will be held at the Old School Square Amphitheater Delray Beach March 31, 2024 4PM - 8PM.

1. Schools and afterschool programs are invited to inspire their children K-12 to create art relating to their own identity and culture, and submit them for display. (Prizes awarded)
2. Organizations are invited to set up tents and have engaging mental health awareness activities with the children and network with the community.
3. Children K-12 are invited to do entrepreneurship. Tables will be provided. (Prizes awarded)
4. Children K-12 ethnic cultural costume performance submissions.

Art requirements:

Size: 8 ½ x 11 paper - Any medium - Theme: Youth empowerment, resiliency and community healing - Due Date: May 17, 2024

Label on the back of the art: School / after school program: Student name: Grade: Teachers contact info: phone/Email

Please visit CAPE Universal website for all submissions information. https://capeuniversal.org/

Contact Anthony Bacchus for more information:

Anthony@capeuniversal.org

Cell: 561-633-3289