

Will you be my Valentine?

Will you be my Valentine and join me in spreading love to those affected by a disorder of the corpus callosum? This February, the NODCC is launching a new campaign, running from February 1st to Rare Disease Day on February 28th (or 29th in a Leap Year). Your contribution will help enhance the quality of life and create opportunities for individuals with a disorder of the corpus callosum. Show some love to the NODCC by making a contribution through the link below today.

Put your fundraiser link here

Love You to Pieces

Let's "piece" together support for my favorite cause: the NODCC!

Next month, the NODCC is launching a new campaign, running from February 1st to Rare Disease Day on February 28th (or 29th in a Leap Year). Your contribution will help enhance the quality of life and create opportunities for individuals with a disorder of the corpus callosum. Show some love to the NODCC by making a contribution through the link below today.

Put your fundraiser link here

I Love Someone with a DCC

I love someone with a DCC!

This February, the NODCC is launching a new campaign, running from February 1st to Rare Disease Day on February 28th (or 29th in a Leap Year). Your contribution will help enhance the quality of life and create opportunities for individuals with a disorder of the corpus callosum. Help me show some love to my favorite cause, the NODCC, by making a contribution through the link below today.

Put your fundraiser link here

My Heart is all Yours!

My heart is all yours – let's support the NODCC together!

Next month, the NODCC is launching a new campaign, running from February 1st to Rare Disease Day on February 28th (or 29th in a Leap Year). Your contribution will help enhance the quality of life and create opportunities for individuals with a disorder of the corpus callosum. Show some love to the NODCC by making a contribution through the link below today.

Put your fundraiser link here