Emergency Management Job Openings

- JOIN OUR TEAM! Emergency Management Planner, Multnomah County Office of Emergency Management, Portland, OR. This Emergency Management Planner manages the County's Continuity of Operations (COOP) Program and is the lead for other plans across the disaster cycle. All MCEM Planners are responsible for taking a whole-community approach to emergency plans, processes and services to ensure no one falls through the cracks. This position requires excellent judgement, discretion, and decision-making to meet organizational priorities and deadlines. A high degree of integrity, diligence, attention to detail, and initiative are keys for success in this role. No closing date listed.
- Public Information Officer, Benton County, Corvallis, OR. The Public Information Officer creates, implements, and advises on communications activities and services for the Benton County organization. Responsibilities include working collaboratively with the Board of Commissioners (BOC), County Administration, management, and staff, to inform and educate the public, media representatives, community partners, stakeholders and other governmental agencies through a variety of communications, marketing strategies public relations activities. No closing date listed.
- Emergency Management Training and Exercise Manager, Thurston County, Olympa, WA. WSDOT is currently seeking to fill an Emergency Program Specialist 3 position which will be stationed out of the WSDOT Headquarters building in Olympia, WA. This position is responsible for ensuring that the agency is ready and able to respond to and recover from any disaster or emergency by managing the Training and Exercise Program for the Office of Emergency Management (OEM). Closes March 15th.
- Regional Disaster Program Officer, American Red Cross, Portland, OR. The RDPO is responsible for the implementation of the disaster services program throughout the region in alignment with established metrics. All disaster positions in a region have a solid line reporting relationship to the RDPO. No closing date listed.