COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is an offering of two integrated courses.

Day 1 provides an overview of the Planning Section and how the section works in an Emergency Operations Center (EOC and DOC). Students will learn the role of each position within the section and how Planning Section staff members interact with other stakeholders, support the planning process, and work together to achieve incident objectives.

Day 2 is intended for current and prospective Planning Section Chiefs. Students will learn how to set up, staff, and lead the Planning Section.

Both courses use exercises, activities, and discussion to provide dynamic instruction on course material.

PREREQUISITES

- Completion of EOC orientation training of home agency
- ICS 100: Introduction to Incident Command System
- ICS 200: Basic Incident Command System for Initial Response
- Completion of other courses as required by home agency

TARGET AUDIENCE:

- EOC and DOC Planning Section staff
- Day 2 is intended for current and prospective Planning Section Chiefs.
