Emergency Management Job Openings

- Community Resilience Program Officer, Mercy Corps, Portland, OR. The Community Resilience Program Officer (PO) will support local preparedness efforts within the Pacific Northwest to ensure that all members of society have an equitable opportunity to build resilience to natural hazards and can bounce back from economic shocks. This position will also improve the ability of Mercy Corps staff to support a potential response after a large scale event. No closing date listed.
- Emergency Management Program Manager, Providence Health & Services, Portland, OR. In this position, you will support the Oregon Region Emergency Management (EM) functions, be responsible for EM activities for personnel and facilities within the Oregon Region, identify potential EM risks, evaluate hazards, prioritize needs and coordinate corrective action(s). Additionally, you will be available for emergency response at any time, and perform all duties in a manner which promotes team concept and reflects the Providence Health System mission and philosophy. No closing date listed.
- Disaster Preparedness Manager, American Red Cross, Portland, OR. This position serves as the lead functional expert in a Red Cross Region for Individual and Community Preparedness and Resilience. Tailoring national program offerings for the Region and communities within the Region, providing technical expertise, and leading local implementation of preparedness and resilience offerings, this position works through regional employees and volunteers to build prepared and resilient communities. No closing date listed.
- Plans, Training & Exercise Manager, University of Washington. As the University's lead disaster planner, trainer and exercise subject matter expert, this position provides the leadership on technical and practical tools for UW students, faculty and staff in the development of plans and requisite skills needed to respond to a wide-variety of hazards and disasters that could potentially impact the UW system. Open until filled.
- Emergency Program Manager, Portland Public Schools. This position develops, trains and implements emergency management plans to assure that students, staff and district facilities are following district safety and emergency procedures and protocols. Open until filled.
- Mid Valley Regional Solutions Coordinator, Governor's Office, Salem, OR. There is an opening for the Mid Valley Regional Solutions Coordinator, which is a full-time Principal Executive Manager F position in the Governor's Office. The Mid Valley region includes Marion, Polk, and Yamhill counties. Regional Solutions Coordinators are based throughout the state with a mission to maximize efficiency of state agencies and collaborate with a wide range of government, private, and philanthropic partners to support economic and community development. The Regional Solutions Teams that they coordinate are charged with finding a way to get to "yes."
- Fire Prevention Coordinator, Portland, OR. Portland State University is hiring a Fire Prevention Coordinator. In collaboration with key internal and external stakeholders, the Fire Prevention Coordinator identifies hazards, conducts risk assessments, prescribes corrective actions, and provides leadership in the implementation of programs to protect campus students, staff, and facilities. The ideal candidate is someone with knowledge and understanding of fire code, fire prevention practices, and fire detection, alarm and suppression systems. This position reports to the Director of Emergency Management and based on interest / experience, this person will also participate in emergency management related projects. Open until filled.
- Deputy Director of Emergency Management, City of San Jose, CA. Under the general direction of the Director of the Office of Emergency Management, the Deputy Director will assist in managing the success of the Emergency Management Work Group (EMWG) in accomplishing the tasks set out in the newly established Emergency Management Roadmap. Open until filled.