Applicants sought for Economic Development Technical Advisory Committee

(Brooksville, FL) The Hernando County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) is accepting applications from individuals wishing to serve on the newly created Economic Development Technical Advisory Committee (EDTAC) pursuant to Ordinance 42-01 adopted on January 14, 2020. The EDTAC shall act in an advisory capacity to the County's economic development staff regarding the Economic Development Program. The committee shall provide input, feedback and assistance on economic development issues such as strategic planning, goal setting, prioritization, policies, programming, investments and incentives.

The EDTAC will consist of seven to nine members and shall be appointed by the BOCC; with specific areas of related professional or technical expertise. Areas of expertise may be comprised of but not limited to the following sectors: manufacturing/logistics, workforce, entrepreneur, education, healthcare, real estate, financial services, construction/development, community-based organization or association. Members will serve staggered four-year terms. The EDTAC will meet a minimum of four times per year at the Hernando County Office of Economic Development located at 15800 Flight Path Drive in Brooksville.

All applicants must be residents and registered voters in Hernando County. In addition, these are voluntary, non-paid positions.

Visit www.HernandoCounty.us/Committees to submit an application. You may also call (352) 754-4002 or visit the County Administrator's Office, located at 20 North Main Street, Room 263, Brooksville, FL 34601, to request an application.

Applications must be dropped off or mailed to the County Administrator's Office no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, January 31, 2020.

Contact the County Administrator's Office at (352) 754-4002 or Administration@HernandoCounty.us for more information.
