

The Quest for the Tenth Bishop of Maine

Open Ended Questions for Parish Congregations

1. Who are you as a parish?

What do you value and how do you demonstrate that?

What stories/foundational events have shaped you?

What do you want the new bishop to know about you?

2. Where do you want to go as a parish?

How close are you to getting there?

What gifts do you have that will help you get there?

What challenges lie in your path?

3. How would you describe your parish's relationship with the diocese?

What would you like your relationship to be in the future?

What qualities in a bishop would facilitate this relationship?
