

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT

Dear Members,

This time of year brings a flurry of activity, both in our respective workplaces and personal lives, as well as the planning efforts of FBC staff and volunteers. Holiday events, and programs for next year, including the upcoming Generations Conference, are keeping us all busy! With that in mind, I am delighted to share a few details of what's in store for FBC in 2019...

FAMILY BUSINESS MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Even with intimate studios in Roseville and Folsom and fewer than 20 employees, Jodi Dillon of Zuda Yoga knows that she struggles with some of the same issues as larger companies. That is why she is eager to take her business acumen to the next level with advice from her FBC family business member colleagues. Since her son and daughter, also in the business, attended their first FBC event, Dillon has embraced new procedures in her business...

TECHNICAL ADVISOR MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

When it comes to sharing the value of FBC membership and sponsorship, we could not have a better partner than Jamie Berry of HUB International Roseville. A born networker, in his 30 years in Sacramento Jamie has established and nurtured relationships with his hundreds of clients, the insurance carriers that are at the core of his employee benefits business, and the personal friends he has made since graduating from CSU Sacramento.

Jamie is keen to share the advantages of becoming involved in the organization because they were so easy for him to witness at his first FBC event..

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As we celebrate the holiday season, I can't help but reflect on the prior year and my gratitude to be part of this amazing community. This year, I'm especially grateful for the new members that have stepped up and dedicated their time to volunteer in our committees. This is tremendously important because our organization's growth and vibrancy is largely dependent on the energy and commitment of our volunteers. For this reason, I would like to welcome these new committee members...
