

Les Lyman is Owner and Chairman of Grow West, an independent agricultural retail company. What started as a single location in 1954 by Les' father, Harvey Lyman, the company has evolved and grown from a single location to operations encompassing 15 locations and supporting 6 Joint Ventures under Les' leadership. Grow West offers a wide variety of services to support the progressive growers who build and sustain profitable businesses while also taking care of the environment and community.

Grow West's core business is marketing products and services to growers in Northern California. With 65+ Pest Control Advisors and Certified Crop Advisors, Grow West provides specialized knowledge, equipment, products, and personalized grower driven services to a diverse conventional and organic grower base throughout Northern California. Building and maintaining valued, long-term relationships with employees, growers, key suppliers, vendors and service providers are essential to the company's success.

Mr. Lyman holds a degree in Ag Business Management from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo. He is married with 4 children and in his spare time enjoys flying, travel, scuba diving and skiing.
