Rabbi David Baum

High Holiday Sermon Series 5787

CONGREGATION SHAAREI KODESH

Here's what Rabbi Baum will be discussing this High Holiday season

FIRST NIGHT OF ROSH HASHANAH

Returning What We've Lost

Exploring the mitzvah of returning lost objects, and what it would mean to recover the sense of unity and purpose so many of us felt, and then lost, in the days after September 11, 2001.

FIRST DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

If I Am Not For Myself, Who Will Be For Me?

The Story of Jewish America Is Yet to Be Written

A sermon about Jewish identity, antisemitism, strength, and our responsibility to keep writing the American Jewish story.

SECOND DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

The Wholeness of a Broken Heart

A special interview with Rabbi Amy Grossblatt Pessah on her new book

KOL NIDRE

We Grow By Saying No

What Yom Kippur can teach us in a world of instant gratification, and why holiness may begin with learning that not every desire needs to be fulfilled.

YOM KIPPUR

If I Am Only For Myself, What Am I?

What Jewish memory asks of us in a wounded world, and what kind of future our ancestors are calling us to create.

Join us for a season of reflection, meaning, and inspiration.
