

JTS Student Ambassador Shoshana Levine

Join Rabbinical Student, Shoshana, through a weekend of spirituality and learning.

In Someone Else's Name: The Importance of Citation and Attribution

Friday, February 27, 6:15 PM

Join us for a spirited Kabbalat Shabbat led by Rabbinical Student, Shoshana Levine. In her D'var Torah, Shoshana explores a teaching from Pirkei Avot about sharing wisdom b'shem om'ro, in the name of the one who taught it. Through moments in Megillat Esther, we will reflect on how naming our teachers is not only important but can change the lives of those around us. An Oneg and informal Q & A will follow services.

Dressing for Success: How Our Clothing Shapes Our Identity and Movement in the World

Saturday, February 1: Shabbat Morning, 9:30 AM

In her D'var Torah during our Shabbat morning service, Shoshana will explore the importance of clothing in our lives and the Torah, focusing on the priestly garments and what they reveal about holiness, leadership, and the ways outward appearance can shape inward intention.

Lunch & Learn: Exclusion of a Name:

Moshe's Simultaneous Presence and Absence in *Tetzaveh

Moshe's name is mysteriously absent in this parashah, and yet he is uniquely centered in God's dissemination of instructions for appointing and dressing the Priests/Kohanim. In this Lunch & Learn, Rabbinical Student Shoshana Levine will guide us through close reading and discussion, exploring the subtle and precise ways Torah communicates meaning through language.
