

The Women's Voice
Kol Isha
Sisterhood of Congregation Shaarei Kodesh
Boca Raton, Florida
Invites you to join us as we present:

'Unsung Israeli Women Heroes'

"The inspiration for the topic came from a realization I had about Golda Meir. While Golda has always been held up as an example of how progressive Israeli society is vis a vis women's equality, the reality that I observe and experience living in Israel is often the opposite. I wanted to explore what lies behind these two truths." Hillary Menkowitz

Live from Israel via Zoom
Sunday, January 10, 2021
1:30pm – 2:30pm

RSVP by January 5, 2021

Guest speaker

Hillary Menkowitz

Originally from Philadelphia, Hillary lives in Jerusalem and has been guiding educational tours throughout Israel.

Since 2011 Hillary has guided Synagogue groups, young professionals, Jewish youth, multi-generational families, interfaith couples, university programs as well as independent travelers. Her BA in anthropology informs and expands her understanding of history, religion, archaeology and culture, helping her to bring a unique understanding to those she guides.

Registration for this event

$5 donation for Kol Isha members (sisterhood)
& members of WLCJ
$18 for non members

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Zoom information will be emailed on Jan. 7, 2021

For additional information contact

Nancy Goldberg: njg18@aol.com or (484) 410-7766

