Tracey Labgold (she/her) is Keshet's Florida Education and Training Manager. Tracey has a Masters in English Education from Teachers College at Columbia University. Tracey started her career as a high school English teacher and then spent a decade facilitating anti-bias and diversity awareness workshops for the ADL. Tracey joined the team at Keshet in 2021. A lifelong learner, Tracey is proud to share that she is a graduate of the Wexner Heritage Program 2023 cohort and a current participant in Spertus' Certificate Program in Combating Antisemitism for Professionals. She and her wife, Michelle, have 5 children. Tracey loves to read and practice yoga when she has spare time.