

Judy Klitsner is a senior lecturer at the Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies, where she has been teaching Bible and biblical exegesis for more than two decades. A disciple of the great Torah teacher Nechama Leibowitz, Judy has had a profound impact on a generation of students serving worldwide. Judy weaves together traditional exegesis, modern scholarship, and her own original interpretations that are informed by close readings of the biblical text. She lectures internationally at synagogues, campuses, and adult education programs that span the denominational spectrum, and she holds a visiting lectureship at the London School of Jewish Studies. Judy's teaching style is lively, interactive, and text-based, and she is particularly fond of uncovering the "vibrant conversation" that takes place between the Bible's parallel stories. Judy Klitsner is the author of Subversive Sequels in the Bible: How Biblical Stories Mine and Undermine Each Other, which received the 2009 National Jewish Book Award.
