IASWECE WORLD CONFERENCE

100 YEARS

Kindness – Strength – Love ·
Seeds for a Healthy Unfolding

A PEEK INSIDE

OVER 1000 EARLY
CHILDHOOD EDUCATORS FROM AROUND THE
WORLD ATTENDED

BABIES AND APRONS FROM ALL AROUND THE WORLD

All of the member countries of IASWECE brought a doll and an apron to share with the wider world. A raffle was held near the end of the conference, and as names were drawn, these little ones and their aprons began their journeys to new homes across the globe. It was one of the most delightful moments—to witness the joy and excitement of early childhood teachers as they received their new babies.

FROM THE STAGE

Five pairs of keynote speakers graced the stage, beginning Wednesday evening and continuing through to Sunday's closing sharing from the section leaders. Each pair explored one of the seven conditions through the lens of their own lives and work, deepening the inner preparation many had begun before the conference in meaningful and lasting ways.

If you'd like to step into the experience, you can find the keynote lectures here —we trust they will be a true gift to you and your work.

EVERY WORKSHOP DEEPENED OUR WORK WITH THE CHILDREN, OURSELVES AND BEYOND

THERE WAS AN ENTIRE
PUPPET
SHOWS!

SO MANY EXPERIENCES OF LOVE

Music and performances wove inside and outside throughout the conference.

Colleagues shared their culture with the world of educators.

We moved and danced the entire time!

The richness warmed our hearts, souls and spirits.

Peace Dance

The wishes of the soul are sprouting,
The deeds of the will are growing,
The fruits of life are ripening.

I feel my destiny,
My destiny finds me.

I feel my star,
My star finds me.

I feel my goals in life,
My goals in life are finding me.
My soul and the great world are one:
Life grows brighter around me,
Life grows more difficult for me,
Life grows richer within me.

Strive for peace,
Live in peace,
Love peace.

Rudolf Steiner

Danza de la Paz

Germinan los deseos del alma,
Crecen los actos de la voluntad,
Maduran los frutos de la vida.

Yo siento mi destino,
Mi destino me encuentra.

Yo siento mi estrella,
Mi estrella me encuentra.

Yo siento mis designios,
Mis designios me encuentran.

Mi alma y el mundo son uno:
La vida se hace más clara en torno a mí,
La vida se hace más difícil para mí,
La vida se hace más rica en mí.

Busca la paz,
Vive en paz,
Ama la paz.

Rudolf Steiner

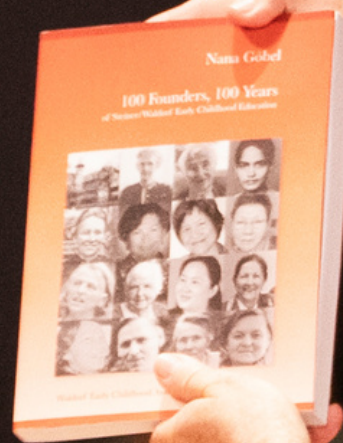

Danse de la paix

Les vœux de l'âme germent
Les actes de la volonté grandissent
Les fruits de la vie mûrissent
Je ressens mon destin, mon destin me trouve
Je ressens mon étoile, mon étoile me trouve
Je ressens mes buts, mes buts me trouvent
Mon âme et le monde ne font qu'un
La vie, elle devient plus claire autour de moi,
La vie, elle devient plus difficile pour moi
La vie, elle devient plus riche en moi
Aspire à la paix
Vis en paix
Aime la paix

100 FOUNDERS 100 YEARS

of Steiner/Waldorf Early Childhood Education

Coming soon to WECAN Books

It is with great joy that we announce the publication of the book "100 Founders, 100 Years of Steiner Waldorf Early Childhood Education," written by Nana Göbel. This collection is an impressive testimony to the birth and development of this educational approach for the youngest children. Today, there are more than 2,000 Waldorf kindergartens around the world!

THE PLACE

The Goetheanum, unique for its sculptural concrete architecture, was designed by Rudolf Steiner without right angles to express a living form. It also serves as the center of Anthroposophy, bringing together art, science, and spiritual inquiry, while functioning as an active gathering place for conferences, performances, and learning.

With courage, we step into the future of Waldorf
Early Childhood Education, together, guided by Kindness – Strength – Love,
sowing seeds for a healthy unfolding
for the next 100 years.
