

Bio – Chuck Negas

Chuck Negas is the Director of Commercial Development for Northwest Exterminating. While born in Atlanta, Georgia, he is a graduate of Lipscomb University. Chuck has been a team member of Northwest Exterminating for over 23 years. He has been involved in its growth from 3 offices and 35 employees to 35 offices and over 700 employees as their focus has become creating healthier living and working environments for homes and businesses.

Participating in a number of trade organizations, he has been involved with CAI since 2003 and served on the board of CAI GA, and was board president. He is currently serving on the board of CAI TN. He has received the LA Phillips award from Northwest, The Rita Kennedy and the President's Choice award from CAI GA, Industry Partner of the Year for IREM GA, and most recently, Business Partner of the year from CAI TN. Chuck enjoys helping others solve challenges and In his spare time he enjoys hiking and photography.