Notes

- Attendance is taken by ushers at all worship services and recorded in a Service Record Book kept in the priest's sacristy. (Officiating clergy sign the book for masses. Laity sign the book for Daily Offices.)
- Per guidance from the national Episcopal Church, total attendance for any service includes not only those in the pews but also clergy and lay worship ministers and musicians, including choir members.
- Average attendance at the 8:00 a.m. mass continues to erode, a 12.5% decrease in 2018 from 2017.
- Average attendance at the 9:00 a.m. mass remained flat at 19.
- Average attendance at the 11:00 a.m. mass declined 6%.
- The highest attendance at any service was 124 for the October 1 Deanery Michaelmas Choral Evensong.
