About Church of the Ascension and Today's Liturgy

Church Of The Ascension Has Been Known Since The Late 1800s for Anglo-Catholic liturgy and for extraordinary sacred music. Describing the parish as if exposing a scandal, an 1892 Chicago Tribune article lamented: "...they have incense, and probably a ritualistic service as high as any in America." The chalice that will be presented (though not given!) to Mother Murphy-Gill at the Offertory today dates from the parish's earliest formative years and bears the initials EBP – Edward Bouverie Pusey, a Church of England priest and Oxford don. By way of what we now call the Oxford Movement, he and others urged Anglicans to reconsider and again embrace historic catholic ritual and a more sacramental understanding of the Church's worship, ministry and witness.

Our Eucharistic worship on Sundays and for holy days and occasions such as today's ordinations take a form known as a Solemn High Mass, following the general form of the pre-Vatican II Tridentine Mass of the Roman Catholic Church. 'Solemn' denotes the use of incense. A 'High Mass' is one that includes three Sacred Ministers – Celebrant, a Deacon and a Subdeacon, all formally vested. (At Bishop Knudsen's request, two deacons will serve in today's service: one for the Liturgy of the Word and one at the altar.) Listen in particular throughout the service for the six ancient Gregorian Propers, chanted in Latin. English translations are provided in the printed order of worship. Special thanks to all who labored and collaborated in preparation for today's extraordinary celebration in faith.

Ordinations

Q. What is Ordination?

A. Ordination is the rite in which God gives authority and the grace of the Holy Spirit to those being made bishops, priests, and deacons, through prayer and the laying on of hands by bishops.

Q. What is the ministry of a priest or presbyter?

A. The ministry of a priest is to represent Christ and his Church, particularly as pastor to the people; to share with the bishop in the overseeing of the Church; to proclaim the Gospel; to administer the sacraments; and to bless and declare pardon in the name of God.

- From the Catechism in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer, pp. 860, 856

In addition to parochial traditions, the form of today's Liturgy is also significantly shaped by the motive for our gathering: two ordinations.

All liturgical visitations to Ascension by a bishop with authority in our diocese begin, as today, with a Solemn Reception of the Bishop.

The rites specific to ordination, mainly featured throughout the Liturgy of the Word, can be traced to, or predate, the 1549 English Book of Common Prayer. They include:

The Presentation, by at least one ordained person and one lay person.

A Declaration – of loyalty “to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of Christ as this Church has received them.” (In the 1550 Prayer Book this was “The Oath of the King’s Supremacy.”) The Ordinands sign a printed form of the Declaration, hereafter kept in the permanent files of the diocesan Bishop’s office.

The chanted Litany for Ordinations – during which the Ordinands prostrate themselves before the Bishop, a sign of submission to the authority of Christ.

The Examination and Prayer of Consecration – during which priests in good standing join the Bishop in laying hands on those being ordained.

The ministry of priesthood is made visible and symbolically imparted to the newly ordained by the rites that follow the Prayer of Consecration:

Investiture in Stole and Chasuble

Anointing of Hands

Imparting of Holy Scripture; and

Presentation of Chalice(s) and Paten(s)

Welcome!

On behalf of all the parishioners, staff and clergy of the Church of the Ascension, please allow me to warmly welcome you. We especially welcome the Rt. Rev. Chilton Knudsen, Assisting Bishop, and Fr. George Smith, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Glen Ellyn, and all who are here from St. Mark's, as well as family and friends of the ordinands, and visiting clergy and laity of the Diocese of Chicago. Regardless of your familiarity with Ascension's liturgy or the rites peculiar to ordination, please join me in prayers that we will know the presence of the Holy Spirit among us today and that the same Spirit will richly bless Mothers Jo Ann and Meghan in their priestly ministries.

The Presentation The Bishop and People sit.

The presenters, clergy and laity, stand before the bishop, saying

Chilton, Bishop in the Church of God, on behalf of the clergy and people of the Diocese of Chicago, we present to you Jo Ann Jaén Lagman and Meghan Murphy-Gill to be ordained priests in Christ's holy catholic Church.

Bishop

Have they been selected in accordance with the canons of this Church? And do you believe their manner of life to be suitable to the exercise of this ministry?

Presenters

We certify to you that they have satisfied the requirements of the canons, and we believe them to be qualified for this order.

The Bishop says to the Ordinands

Will you be loyal to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of Christ as this Church has received them? And will you, in accordance with the canons of this Church, obey your bishop and other ministers who may have authority over you and your work?

Ordinands

I am willing and ready to do so; and I solemnly declare that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do solemnly engage to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of The Episcopal Church.

The Ordinands then sign the above Declaration in the sight of all present.

The People stand and the Bishop says to the people

Dear friends in Christ, you know the importance of this ministry, and the weight of your responsibility in presenting Meghan and Jo Ann for ordination to the sacred priesthood. Therefore if any of you know any impediment or crime because of which we should not proceed, come forward now, and make it known.

If no objection is made, the Bishop continues

Is it your will that Jo Ann and Meghan be ordained priests?

People It is.

Bishop Will you uphold them in this ministry?

People We will.

The Bishop then calls the people to prayer, saying

In peace let us pray to the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sit      The First Reading      Isaiah 6.1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

The Epistle      Philippians 4.4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

The Examination

The Bishop addresses the ordinands as follows

My sisters, the Church is the family of God, the body of Christ, and the temple of the Holy Spirit. All baptized people are called to make Christ known as Savior and Lord, and to share in the renewing of his world. Now you are called to work as pastor, priest, and teacher, together with your bishop and fellow presbyters, and to take your share in the councils of the Church.

As a priest, it will be your task to proclaim by word and deed the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and to fashion your life in accordance with its precepts. You are to love and serve the people among whom you work, caring alike for young and old, strong and weak, rich and poor. You are to preach, to declare God's forgiveness to penitent sinners, to pronounce God's blessing, to share in the administration of Holy Baptism and in the celebration of the mysteries of Christ's Body and Blood, and to perform the other ministrations entrusted to you.

In all that you do, you are to nourish Christ's people from the riches of his grace, and strengthen them to glorify God in this life and in the life to come.

My sisters, do you believe that you are truly called by God and his Church to this priesthood?

Answer I believe I am so called.

Bishop

Do you now in the presence of the Church commit yourself to this trust and responsibility?

Answer I do.

Bishop

Will you respect and be guided by the pastoral direction and leadership of your bishop?

Answer I will.

Bishop

Will you be diligent in the reading and study of the Holy Scriptures, and in seeking the knowledge of such things as may make you a stronger and more able minister of Christ?

Answer I will.

Bishop

Will you endeavor so to minister the Word of God and the sacraments of the New Covenant, that the reconciling love of Christ may be known and received?

Answer I will.

Bishop

Will you undertake to be a faithful pastor to all whom you are called to serve, laboring together with them and with your fellow ministers to build up the family of God?

Answer I will.

Bishop

Will you do your best to pattern your life [and that of your family, or household, or community] in accordance with the teachings of Christ, so that you may be a wholesome example to your people?

Answer I will.

Bishop

Will you persevere in prayer, both in public and in private, asking God's grace, both for yourself and for others, offering all your labors to God, through the mediation of Jesus Christ, and in the sanctification of the Holy Spirit?

Answer I will.

Bishop

May the Lord by his grace uphold you in the service he lays upon you.

Answer Amen.

The Consecration

A period of silent prayer follows, the people still standing.

The Bishop then says this Prayer of Consecration

God and Father of all, we praise you for your infinite love in calling us to be a holy people in the kingdom of your Son Jesus our Lord, who is the image of your eternal and invisible glory, the firstborn among many brethren, and the head of the Church. We thank you that by his death he has overcome death, and, having ascended into heaven, has poured his gifts abundantly upon your people, making some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry and the building up of his body.

Here the Bishop lays hands upon the head of each of the ordinands in turn. As appropriate and directed, other Priests may also lay a hand on the ordinand or extend a hand from a distance, as the Bishop prays

Therefore, Father, through Jesus Christ your Son, give your Holy Spirit to Jo Ann; fill her with grace and power, and make her a priest in your Church. May she exalt you, O Lord, in the midst of your people; offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to you; boldly proclaim the gospel of salvation; and rightly administer the sacraments of the New Covenant. Make her a faithful pastor, a patient teacher, and a wise councilor. Grant that in all things she may serve without reproach, so that your people may be strengthened and your Name glorified in all the world. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

*The People in a loud voice respond Amen.

Offertory “Sicut in holocausto” (Dan. 3) Mode V

Sicut in holocausto arietum et taurorum, et sicut in millibus agnorum pinguium: sic fiat sacrificium nostrum in conspectu tuo hodie, ut placeat tibi: quia non est confusio confidentibus in te Domine.

Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, that it may please thee: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee, O Lord.

Offertory Motet

*I give you a new commandment:
that ye love one another e'en as I have loved you.
By this all shall know that ye are my disciples.*

Setting: John Sheppard (c.1515-1558) I give you a new commandment

The offering received this morning is normally designated for the Ordinand's discretionary fund. When more than one person is being ordained, we find it easiest to have checks made payable to the host church and the amount collected will be divided between the Ordinands.

Stand Orate Fratres

Bishop Pray, my brothers and sisters, that this my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

People May the Lord receive this sacrifice at your hands, to the praise and glory of his Name, both to our benefit and that of all his holy Church.

Bishop Amen.

Sursum Corda

The musical notation for the Sursum Corda section consists of four staves, each with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The first staff is for the Celebrant, with the lyrics "The Lord be with you." and "And al - so with you." The second staff is for the People, with the lyrics "Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord." The third staff is for the Celebrant, with the lyrics "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." The fourth staff is for the People, with the lyrics "It is right to give him thanks and praise." The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals.

Celebrant The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through the great shepherd of your flock, Jesus Christ our Lord; who after his resurrection sent forth his apostles to preach the Gospel and to teach all nations; and promised to be with them always, even to the end of the ages.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

*Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of Hosts: Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to Thee, O Lord most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.*

Setting: Harold Darke (1888-1976) Communion Service in F

The people kneel and the Bishop continues

Kneel Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Bishop and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Bishop continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Fa - ther, who art in hea - ven, hal - low - ed
be thy Name, thy king - dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in hea - ven. Give us this day our

Invitation to Communion

Bishop Behold the Lamb of God; behold him that takes away the sins of the world. Happy are they who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof.

People But speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

The Flowers

Flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God and in thanksgiving for the new priestly ministries of Mother Jo Ann Jaén Lagnan and Mother Meghan Murphy-Gill by Father Patrick and Brooke Raymond.

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in our vocations and ministries we may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty Father, whose blessed Son before his passion prayed for his disciples that they might be one, as you and he are one: Grant that your Church, being bound together in love and obedience to you, may be united in one body by the one Spirit, that the world may believe in him whom you have sent, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
