Organ Recital, Evensong &
Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

The Second Sunday of Advent

December 4, 2022 + 3:30 p.m.
Church of the Ascension, Chicago

Evening Prayer has been a unique feature of Anglican worship since the first English Book of Common Prayer, 1549. But parts of the Evening Prayer service as we will share it here have been prayed in Christian monasteries since the sixth century. The Phos Hilaron ('O Gracious Light'), chanted as we begin, is the earliest known Christian hymn, other than those in Scripture, still widely used in worship today. Some Psalms predate Christianity by as many as 1500 years. The service is called Evensong when, as here, parts of it are sung and when joined by a choir, as is the case this evening, Choral Evensong. The term Daily Office refers to daily Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer, together, and connotes a spiritual discipline of prayer, whether practiced with others or alone. The basic form of Evening Prayer is simple: we recite Psalms, hear two Bible readings, recite the Apostles Creed, and pray. The first and second readings are followed, respectively, by the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, songs of praise from the opening chapters of Luke's Gospel. A sermon may be included but is not assumed. The worship is considered complete without it.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, is a devotional rite, mainly celebrated in Roman Catholic tradition but also in some Anglican and Lutheran churches. Benediction was introduced in the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago in 1884, here at Church of the Ascension, and it has been customary to offer it here in conjunction with Evensong. All parts of the rite direct attention to worship of Christ in the Eucharist. At the start of the rite, the consecrated host is 'exposed' – removed from the Tabernacle and placed in a monstrance for viewing and adoration prior to the Benediction proper. Some have suggested this rite should properly be called Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament because the priest stands at the altar and blesses the congregation by making the sign of the cross not with the hand but with the Eucharistic Host itself. The reverence for the Sacrament is heightened by the priest's use of a humeral veil. It prevents the priest from bodily touching the monstrance during the Benediction. Benediction has included diverse elements in differing times and places, but the elements of the rite here at Church of the Ascension are widely used. The Laudes Divinae, or Divine Praises, is an expiatory prayer put in the present form by Pope Pius VII in 1801 and offered before the Benediction. Here at Church of the Ascension and in other Anglo-Catholic congregations, the services of Evensong and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament are commonly paired.

The Lessons

The First Lesson

2 Peter 3:11-18

Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire? But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home. Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish; and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation. So also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, speaking of this as he does in all his letters. There are some things in them hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other scriptures. You therefore, beloved, since you are forewarned, beware that you are not carried away with the error of the lawless and lose your own stability. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

The Second Lesson

Luke 7:28-35

Jesus spoke to the crowds concerning John: "I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." (And all the people who heard this, including the tax collectors, acknowledged the justice of God, because they had been baptized with John's baptism. But by refusing to be baptized by him, the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves.) "To what then will I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not weep.' For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon'; the Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Nevertheless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

Remain Standing for the Apostles' Creed and the Prayers

The Apostles' Creed (Monotone)

Officiant and People together

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. —o—o—

The General Thanksgiving Please stand as able.

Officiant and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we thine unworthy servants
do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men.
We bless thee for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for thine inestimable love
in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we beseech thee,
give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful;
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee

Welcome to worship at the Church of the Ascension

An Anglican-Episcopal parish in the city and Diocese of Chicago

SOME WHO HAVE GATHERED HERE TODAY may have traveled from afar and visited before. Church of the Ascension has long been a destination for those who feel blessed by the Anglo-Catholic worship here. Others may have made a shorter trip, and those here for the first time may ask, “What’s Anglo-Catholic?” The term refers to two aspects of our history and ongoing faith and worship.

Anglican churches are those in the tradition of, and with ongoing ties to, the Church of England. (In the United States we are mainly called Episcopalians.)

The ‘Catholic’ part of our identity is evident all around us here, in the church interior and in our worship.

- + We value and relish liturgy and music that engage and nourish the heart the mind and all the senses.
- + Our reverence for the sacrament of the Eucharist, the Mass, Christ’s Body and Blood, is emphasized by the architecture of the space and many elements of our worship.
- + We have a strong sense of taking part, as Christ’s people, in the Communion of Saints, including Blessed Mary and our patron saint, Michael the Archangel. Our faith is inspired and sustained by remembering the lives and witness of those who are now eternally with God.

We hope and pray that our sense of grateful, divine fellowship translates to our welcome of all and to faithfulness in the ministries that we share beyond our life of worship.

Your questions about our parish community, our worship and other ministries may be found by inquiring with our clergy or parishioners, or on our website – www.ascensionchicago.org.

Thank you and bless you for joining us.
