A POEM LOVE FROM THE CHILDREN

Now we are left all alone
Both parents have been called home
It's so hard for us to believe you are gone
You were always a hard worker
You were built tough and strong
Your soul suddenly flew away
Here yesterday gone today
To love a person with all your heart
And to loose them so quickly could tear you apart
We know you would want us to be nothing but strong
To do right by one another and not to do wrong
We're just gonna keep taking it one day at a time
Keeping our heads up – we will be just fine

A POEM FOR THE GRANDCHILDREN

Don't grieve for me, for now I am free
I'm following the path, God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play
The task left undone must stay that way,
Don't grieve for me , for now I am free.
And if my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of happiness and joy
So don't grieve for me for now I am free

"LOCATION"

Finding a Good Location

Sometimes God Finds A Location
God located Donnie Glen Richmond – aka Dude
Through the good we created a family. We combined our children, 5 males, 4 females.
We grew and we loved through thick and thin.

Location

We talked, cried, laughed trying to locate Donnie Glen Richmond – aka Dude

With love found him a location in heaven.
Rest in peace Donnie Glen Richmond – aka Dude
