

Have you checked out "Voices from the Bench: A Dental Laboratory Podcast"? It's a weekly podcast dedicated to the dental laboratory industry that brings industry news, interviews and Roundtable discussions about topics affecting our dental industry with people in our industry.

Voices from the Bench is hosted by Elvis Dahl from Somer Dental Laboratories in Zionsville, IN and Barbara Warner Wojdan from Knight Dental Group in Oldsmar, FL. Since its first podcast aired on April 1, 2018 over 30 episodes have been released. Each episode promises to be both entertaining and informative and is available anytime, with new episodes every Monday.

WSDLA President, Chris Delarm, CDT along with FDLA President, Tim Stevenson, CDT and ODLA President, Lonni Thompson, CDT participated in two episodes, "A Better State of Mind: Roundtable Conversation About State Regulation Part 1 (Episode 32) and Part 2 (Episode 33)". In this two episode podcast, the association presidents discuss their various state associations and the state regulations the dental laboratories within their states are currently following. They also discuss how two of the three states are still fighting for additional regulation for dental laboratories.

Interested in listening now? Click the episode links below to begin listening!

"A Better State of Mind: Roundtable Conversation About State Regulation"

Episode 32 \(Part 1\)

Episode 33 \(Part 2\)

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to connect with those in the dental industry, learn new things and have fun! To find out more information about the podcast, listen to past episodes and subscribe, click here.