

Meet the CCSI Board of Directors – Board Chair, Cindee Gray, MBA

CCSI's board of directors brings together an exceptionally talented group of individuals who are strongly committed to advancing the mission and vision of CCSI. In addition to a deep passion for strengthening the delivery of behavioral health and human services and improving outcomes, CCSI board members bring expertise in essential areas including healthcare finance, human resources, business development, health care law, compliance, and much more. In the coming months, we'll be spotlighting board members, starting with CCSI's Board Chair, Cindee Gray.

An RIT employee for more than 30 years, Cindee currently serves as assistant vice president of Rochester Institute of Technology and Rochester Regional Health Alliance, an innovative collaboration focused on improving the quality and cost of health care delivery in improving health outcomes among residents of Western New York and the Finger Lakes region. Cindee has served on the CCSI's board of directors since 2011, assuming the role of board chair in 2016. When asked about why she chooses to volunteer her time with CCSI, Cindee shares: "I was introduced to CCSI and Anne Wilder through Leadership Rochester and a colleague at Rochester Regional Health. I was so impressed with the professionalism of the staff and the work they do to support behavioral health and other nonprofit organizations that work to improve the lives of the clients they serve, that I felt it was a good investment in the community and my time. I continue to marvel at their growth and accomplishments and am so proud to be a small part of the amazing work they do and the lives they touch."

In addition to the dedication Cindee brings to her volunteer work with the CCSI board, she has a long history of sharing her expertise with other organizations in the Rochester area, including volunteer work with the United Way of Greater Rochester, the Special Olympics, Leadership Rochester, Bivona Child Advocacy Center, FIRST Robotics, Heritage Christian Services, Rochester Business Alliance's Women's Council, and more. In 2016, Cindee received RIT's Four Presidents Distinguished Public Service Award, which recognizes RIT employees and students who exemplify an outstanding commitment to public service.
