

Sustainable Agriculture Research & Education Grant Opportunities

Are you trying to find a source of funds to use on your farm to compare the sustainability of one production or marketing practice to another? Would you like to explore the viability of an innovative idea? Would some additional funds facilitate your efforts to teach youth about sustainable practices? (NCR-SARE) grants can be one source of funds for these and related purposes.

Purdue Extension and Indiana SARE will offer free workshops for those interested in applying for a SARE grant. The workshops will take place:

September 11 Purdue Extension-Johnson County6:00-8:00 pm
First Financial Bank, 1250 N Emerson Avenue Greenwood, IN
