

ATTENTION INDIANA FARMERS

PURDUE ENTOMOLOGY WANTS YOUR BUGS!

The Insect Ecology Lab at Purdue University is looking for fallow or unmanaged agricultural land to study insect and plant diversity this summer (April - October 2021).

Surveys are non-destructive insect collections and plant counts. Land should be unplanted for at least one year, not managed, and have a total area of 2 or more acres.

CONTACT ALLISON BISTLINE-EAST
909-334-2555 | ABISTLIN@PURDUE.EDU
FOR DETAILS OR TO EXPRESS INTEREST