

At least 32 out of 36 TPS Elementary Schools are sharing any potential exposures through elementary specialist (Music, PE, Library, and Maker Space) deployments. That means 562 classrooms, or 14,050 students, (plus their families, plus staff from each school and their families), have all been exposed and need to isolate and/or be tested if there is even one positive case of COVID-19.

