Happy Holidays

As we skate into the days ahead, we wish you much success and happiness this holiday season!

Tech gifts are popular again this year and we get it, you want the WOW factor. Here are some quick tips to make your tech gift giving a huge success:

- Don't forget to buy batteries
- Keep a back up charging cord and when possible charge gifts before you give them!
- If you aren't one to read instructions, check out instructional videos on YouTube
- Learn all about your gadget and its cool features
- Know in advance how to connect your device to your home network.
- Always keep internet security in mind and have a plan
- When in doubt, CALL A NERD!
