“From the first hotel transaction with Virginia Title Center, we were impressed that the settlement processor was very prompt to reply to our emails and was always on top of things. She provided such a great service experience that our client chose to work with her and VTC on the next four hotel projects. The take-charge approach and proactive communicating with all the parties in the transactions resulted in saving time and effort in resolving potential complications. We look forward to working with VTC again in any future qualified projects.
