

KDS Elementary Celebrates Read Across America Day

'Read Across America Day' is a nationwide reading celebration that takes place annually during the week of March 2nd - the birthday of the beloved Dr. Seuss. Across the country, thousands of schools, libraries, and community centers participate by bringing together kids, teens, parents, grandparents, and books; and KDS was no exception!

KDS students had a blast celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday by showing off their reading skills and sharing their great success with their families at the KDS Elementary Family Reading Night. The annual event was held on February 28th as one of the many activities to celebrate 'Read Across America Day'. Families visited their students' classrooms, participated in fun Dr. Seuss-themed activities, ate pizza, and shopped at the book fair.

Wacky Wednesday was a favorite among the students. Harper Downs was adorably wacky!
