

KDS DAR Elementary School Welcomes New Principal

KDS welcomes Dr. Tenna Bradshaw Anderton as its new elementary school principal. A 1983 KDS graduate, Dr. Anderton holds an Associate Degree in Elementary Education from Snead State Community College. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Athens State University. Dr. Anderton further holds an Ed.S. in Elementary Education, an Administration Degree in Educational Leadership, and an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership, all from the University of Alabama.

Dr. Anderton brings with her 14 years of experience in the classroom, including four years as a first and second grade teacher at KDS DAR Elementary School and ten years as a second grade teacher at Claysville Elementary. She also has 15 years of experience as a school principal. In 2004 Dr. Anderton was named principal of Union Grove Elementary School which was later renamed Brindlee Mountain Primary. She then became principal of Sloman Primary School in Douglas in 2012 and moved to Claysville Elementary as principal in 2015.

Dr. Anderton is married to newly retired KDS High School Principal Stacy Anderton. They reside in Grant.

"My husband Stacy and I were married in the Nan Roberts Lane Chapel on August 22, 1987," she said.

In her free time, she enjoys reading, exercising, and shopping.

Dr. Anderton said, "I am excited to be principal of a very special place - KDS DAR Elementary School. I grew up visiting my grandmother, aunts, uncles, and cousins across the street from the campus. Every place on campus holds a special memory shared by friends and family."
