

Kindness Rocks

Painted rocks are coloring the landscape around the Town of Grant recently. This is all part of an effort by local Girl Scouts and their "Kindness Rocks" campaign. In the spirit of "take a penny, leave a penny," the Girl Scouts encouraged others to take a rock or leave their own painted one for another to find.

In August, Girl Scout Troop 10211 hosted a Kindness Rocks painting event at Kidtopia Park in Grant. At this event, kids of all ages were invited to paint Kindness Rocks.

Participants were then asked to take their rocks with them or to leave their painted rocks for the scouts to distribute. The Girl Scouts plan to scatter the rocks they have painted around town for others to find and enjoy. The Scouts ask everyone to post photos of their found or painted rocks on the 211 Rocks Facebook page.
