

KDS Students Celebrated Christmas by Helping Others

We all have much to be thankful for, and this Christmas, the students and faculty at KDS did their best to spread the love. From Christmas Coalition to help fellow students, to canned food drives in the community, to gifts for Guatemalans in need, the KDS family banded together to make an impact and make the holidays merry and bright for others.

