

A Note from Our President

Your Gift Is the Heart of Our Impact ♥

As we reflect on the incredible generosity that fuels Impact 100 Palm Beach County, for your impact to be felt. Your commitment to our mission is what unites us, and we are profoundly grateful for the trust you place in us to steward your generosity.

Whether you attend every event or quietly cheer us on from afar, your annual contribution is the most powerful part of your membership. It is your gift that makes our collective giving model possible. It is your gift that changes lives across our community.

MEMBER MOMENTS

We are thrilled to celebrate Jeannine Morris, our immediate past Co-President, on her recent honor as the 2025 Woman Volunteer of the Year, presented by the Junior League of Boca Raton. Selected from 40 remarkable nominees, Jeannine was recognized for her extraordinary dedication to Place of Hope and her unwavering commitment to children and families in crisis. As a member of Impact 100 PBC since 2012, Jeannine has given more than a decade of leadership and heart to our mission, inspiring women to give collectively and strengthening our organization's reach and impact. We are so proud to see her contributions celebrated on a community-wide stage.

"When a friend introduced me to Impact 100 PBC, I was immediately drawn to the idea of collectively funding grants to support our local community. Through this experience, I've built friendships that inspire me and enrich both my personal and professional life. Serving on the Health and Wellness Grant Review Committee has been deeply rewarding, giving me a clearer understanding of how membership dollars are managed and the real impact they create. It's amazing to witness how quickly Impact 100 PBC has grown—a true testament to the dedication and drive of its volunteer members."

—Sandra Awaida, member since '20

"I joined Impact 100 PBC because I wanted to be part of something meaningful, and it has shown me just how powerful women-led giving can be. Seeing women come together to fund transformational grants and knowing we're making a real difference in southern Palm Beach County has been so inspiring. Serving on the Grant Review Committee this year has been an incredible experience and has given me an even deeper appreciation for the impact we're making in our community."

—Carly Letarte, member since '24
