ART ON THE FENCE

A Community Celebration

HELP US DECORATE THE CONSTRUCTION FENCE THAT WILL SURROUND CENTRAL LIBRARY DURING THE EARTHQUAKE RETROFIT AND REPAIRS PROJECT.

Create an image featuring your favorite library, book or book character. Artwork will be displayed on the fence and later in the exhibit space when the library reopens. Designs can be about anything related to the library, Pasadena, literature, or the Pasadena community.

ENTRY DEADLINE EXTENDED | THURSDAY, MAY 15, 2025

Guidelines

- Open to all, any age, who live, work, or attend school in Pasadena and/or in the Pasadena Unified School District. To be eligible you must meet one of these categories.
- Design must be a flat image related to the library, Pasadena, your favorite book, favorite book character, or literature. Themes could include:
  - Reading your favorite book
  - Learning together at the library
  - Favorite Pasadena library memories
  - The library of the future
  - Another library-related theme
- Image must be on only one side of the paper not both sides. Paper size can range from 8 1/2" x 11" to 11" x 17." Image should be portrait orientation (short side of paper at top and bottom).
- Must use bright pens, markers, or paint. We encourage you to make your picture as crisp and opaque as possible to be bright and visible.
- Digital illustrations are accepted via the online form by the deadline. (Illustrations will be reproduced for display).
- Submission must be the applicant's original work.
- Must have a completed and signed entry form attached to physical submissions or submitted using the online form.
- Original artwork will be returned to participants following the Grand Reopening of Central Library.

Entries

Submit your illustration in one of the following ways:

- Drop it off at any Pasadena Public Library branch during open hours with the submission form attached
- Submit your digital illustration using the online entry form at CityofPasadena.LibWizard.com/f/ArtontheFence-ACommunityCelebration.

Selection

A selection panel will review the submitted entries and select the finalists to feature.

For Participants

All entries become the property of the City of Pasadena ("City") with right to copy, distribute, utilize in marketing and fundraising campaigns, and as the City sees fit. Should my or my child's entry (if applicable) to the Art on the Fence: A Community Celebration be accepted,

I _____(print name) do hereby give permission to the Pasadena Public Library to reproduce my work (giving due credit to me) or my child's work (giving due credit to my child if applicable) for display both on the fence surrounding Central Library and later in the Exhibit Space once the library reopens or other library displays and uses consistent with those of a municipal library. Except as used by the Pasadena Public Library, all artists will retain the rights to their work. Entry in the competition constitutes full permission to publish the artwork without compensation. The determination of eligibility of entries and any interpretation of these rules is at the sole discretion of the Pasadena Public Library and shall be final and binding upon all entrants.

By participating, the entrant agrees to abide by and be bound by these rules. Entrant agrees to release the City of Pasadena, its officers, employees, agents and representatives, from any and all liability, claims, or damages which in whole or in part result from, or arise out of, or are claimed to result from or arise out of participation in the Art on the Fence: A Community Celebration, including, but not limited to rights or claims under the California Art Preservation Act or the federal Copyright Act.
