

ECHO Autism

Moving Knowledge, Not Patients

ECHO Autism is a monthly telementoring program that connects a multidisciplinary team of autism experts at the UC Davis MIND Institute with practitioners in remote locations.

Screening, Identification, and Primary Care Treatment Series

1st Thursdays 12-1:30PST

Early identification, diagnosis and treatment of frequent medical concerns

Target Audience

Pediatricians
Physicians
Psychiatrists

Nurse Practitioners
Physician Assistants
Psychologists

Advanced Topics Series

2nd Thursdays 12-1:30PST

Complex medical and mental health concerns

Target Audience

Physicians
Psychologists
Autism Specialists

Medical Professionals
Psychiatrists
Mental Health Professionals

Improving Autism Care
Are you ready to join the movement?

Sign Up At: <https://health.ucdavis.edu/mindinstitute/education/echo/index.html>

For more information contact hs-echoautism@ucdavis.edu or 916-734-0484.

- No cost
- CME Part 1 credits
- CME MOC 2 credits for pediatricians
- Accessible online from anywhere
- Support managing ASD cases
- Case based learning

UC DAVIS HEALTH

MIND
INSTITUTE