

The Women's Center, LGBTQIA Safe Zone Hub, Casa de las Américas, Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies Option, Photography, and Fine Arts programs present:

WOMEN'S HERSTORY MONTH: PERSONAL IS POLITICAL

3/16: Being 3, Carla Tomassini

1pm-2:30pm via Zoom. Scan QR to register!

Carla Tomassini is a photographer and poet from Puerto Rico. Being 3 brings together photographs and poetry about healing deep ancestral wounds. Join us for a viewing of Being 3, and dialogue.

3/17: Visiting Artist, Samantha Box

1:00pm-2:30pm. E-111

Samantha Box is a Jamaican-born, Bronx-based photographer. Box has been an artist-in-residence at the Center of Photography at Woodstock and Light Work, and was a Bronx Museum AIM fellow. As part of a Visiting Artist Series, join us for a slide presentation, lecture, and reception with refreshments.

3/23: Visiting Artist, Melissa Mislá

5:00pm-6:30pm. E-111

Melissa Mislá is a native New Yorker and mixed media artist specifically interested in the Nuyorican experience. As part of a Visiting Artist Series, join us for a slide presentation, lecture, and reception with refreshments.

3/29: Legacy Women

3pm-5pm. LAGCC Gym

Legacy Women is an all-women's traditional musical group rooted in Afro-Dominican and Afro-Puerto Rican traditions. They are the next generation of NYC's most gifted drummers, singers, and dancers of Afro-Caribbean music and other Afro-Indigenous roots music of the Caribbean. As part of Spring Fest, join us for a dynamic performance.

For accommodations, please contact Nathan Tosh at ntosh@lagcc.cuny.edu at least one week prior to each program.