

TUESDAY TUNE-UP SESSIONS

Are you concerned about a child in your care? Do you have questions about challenging behavior and early childhood development?

Connect with our Child Development Team during our Tuesday Tune-Up Sessions. Discuss trending issues relating to early childhood health, development, challenging behavior, and more!

All sessions are FREE, are offered in English and Spanish (same day/time), and are held virtually via Zoom in the evening for your convenience.

RSVP in advance for one of our upcoming 2025 sessions today and join the discussion! Once you RSVP your attendance, you will receive a confirmation email with information on how to join the meeting.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND?

Tuesday Tune-Up sessions are open to center or program Directors, Teachers, Assistant Teachers, and other early learning professionals who may be struggling with challenging classroom behavior, are concerned about a child in their care, or have questions about early childhood development. Join us for the opportunity to:

- Connect directly with our Child Development Team
- Ask questions or receive guidance and support with current issues
- Network and collaborate with other early childhood educators
- Build relationships with ELC Staff
- Gain an understanding of early childhood development
- Learn supportive strategies to use with the children in your care
- Discuss trending topics in early childhood health, development, and more!
