

LVC VOLUNTEERS BRING FUN & GAMES TO COMPEER

Students from Lebanon Valley College have started to volunteer at our monthly socials! Beginning in 2019, the student volunteers have attended each social and provided support and companionship to our Compeer friends and volunteers. For our latest social, the students hosted a bingo night at the Senior Center in Lebanon!

Over 15 guests attended the event, and food and drinks were provided. Nicole Flohr, one of the student volunteers, called out the numbers as guests competed for various prizes including a flashlight pen and marker board. After playing over an hour of bingo, the guests split up into smaller groups and played board and card games, including Uno and Yahtzee, before heading home for the evening.

Thanks to the LVC student volunteers who helped at the event and Jen Liedtka, LVC's service and volunteerism coordinator, for making the social a huge success!

GET BOWLED OVER WITH COMPEER!

On May 2, 2019, Compeer will host a special bowling night for our volunteers and clients as a special thank you!

The event will happen from 6 to 8 PM at the Palmyra Bowling Alley. Pizza and soda will be provided as well as one game and shoe rental for volunteers and clients only. Limited transportation will be provided from Lebanon to the bowling alley.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP to Julie Baum at (717) 272-8317 or coordinator@compeer-lebanon.org by April 26, 2019.
