

Speaker: Eric Geisser, Regional Director, American Israel Public Affairs Committee

Title of talk: "The US-Israel Relationship: Built for Good

Date: Wednesday, May 5th, 2021

Bio: Eric Geisser, AIPAC Regional Director, joined The American Israel Public Affairs Committee in 1999 when he opened AIPAC's first office in New England. Under his leadership, AIPAC New England has grown more than tenfold.

Before joining AIPAC, Eric worked for the Combined Jewish Philanthropies of Greater Boston where he supervised the campaigns for the business and professional teams.

He has also managed one of the most profitable educational centers for a Washington Post subsidiary and has held significant positions in state government.

His professional political experience includes presidential, congressional and gubernatorial campaigns.

Eric holds an MBA with high honors, concentrating in not-for-profit management from the Boston University Graduate School of Management where he also taught as an adjunct lecturer. He received his B.A. from Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, New York.