Welcome

Welcome to Indian River County!

The Cultural Council's diverse membership includes artists, museums, galleries and art clubs; choral groups, symphonies, orchestras and opera; literary arts, authors and writers; culinary arts; ecology and environment; history, heritage and cultural travel; musicians, performers and speakers; theater and dance; community organizations, patrons, individuals and families; businesses and corporations.

Being true to our mission statement, the Cultural Council continually finds and supports opportunities for education in cultural arts, collaborates with member organizations, promotes cultural arts to residents and visitors, provides programming to showcase the arts, and advocates on issues of interest to its constituency.

We hope you, residents and visitors, will enjoy all the cultural life our county has to offer. In the first part of this guide, events have been listed by date. Underneath each event is the organization producing the event. The organizations are color coded to correspond to the categories where you can find more information about the event and how to contact the organization. The companion piece to this guide is our online calendar, www.culturalcalendar.org. All events are listed on an actual calendar so you may look for events on a specific day, during a week or a month. When using the calendar, you can select the category or categories of events you want to see, or you can choose to see everything happening that day, week, or month. Events are linked to a website giving specific information about the event. The online calendar is updated daily. In the second part of this guide you will find events organized by category. Under each category, events are listed in alphabetical order by the organization producing the event. Categories are color-coded and are as follows:

Theatre & Dance
Concerts, Opera, Orchestra & Symphony
Fine Art, Galleries & Museums
Speaker Series, Lectures, Literary & Film
Community Events & Festivals
Family Events
Children's Activities

Some organizations appear in more than one category as their events and/or productions fall into multiple categories. Contact information for each event is included under the name of the organization.

An uplifting, award-winning musical by Irene Sankoff and David Hein that tells the remarkable true story of kindness in the wake of crisis. When 38 planes carrying thousands of stranded passengers were diverted to the small town of Gander, Newfoundland on September 11, 2001, the local community opened their hearts and homes to the world. What began as an unexpected emergency became a powerful testament to generosity, resilience, and human connection. Clue - A Murder Mystery
Director Hunter Foster
Written by Sandy Rustin
Based on Screenplay by Jonathan Lynn
Additional Material by Hunter Foster and Eric Price
Based on the Hasbro Board Game Clue
Original Music by Michael Holland
A fast-paced stage farce and murder mystery inspired by the beloved 1985 film and the classic board game. Set in 1954 at the secluded Boddy Manor, six eccentric guests—Colonel Mustard, Mrs. White, Mr. Green, Mrs. Peacock, Professor Plum, and Miss Scarlet—arrive for a dinner party hosted by the enigmatic Mr. Boddy, only to discover they are all being blackmailed. When the lights go out and a gunshot rings through the mansion, the evening erupts into comic chaos. As secrets unravel and bodies pile up, the guests scramble to solve the mystery. Packed with sharp wit, slapstick humor, and unexpected twists, this madcap whodunit will keep you laughing—and guessing who really did it.

The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged) [Revised] [Again]
A fast-paced, laugh-out-loud comedy that tackles all 37 of Shakespeare's plays in one wildly entertaining evening. Three fearless actors race through tragedies, comedies, and histories in a whirlwind of outrageous characters, clever improvisation, and audience interaction. From Hamlet in minutes to a hilariously condensed version of the history plays, nothing is sacred and everything is fair game. Whether you're a Shakespeare scholar or someone who avoided him in school, this high-energy romp proves that the Bard has never been this much fun.

The Mouse & The Mustache
Director Marcia Milgrom Dodge
Written by Anthony Dodge
Two artistic giants—Walt Disney and Salvador Dalí—meet in 1946 Hollywood and embark on an unlikely creative partnership. United by curiosity and ambition, they set out to create the animated short Destino, blending Disney's gift for storytelling with Dalí's surrealist vision. At the heart of their collaboration is a poetic love story between Chronos, the personification of time, and a mortal woman, unfolding in a dreamscape of melting clocks and shifting landscapes. As sketches multiply and imaginations collide, artistic passion meets practical reality. Though financial pressures halt the project, the unfinished film becomes legend. Decades later, Destino is finally completed, honoring a daring fusion of mass culture and avant-garde art—and celebrating the extraordinary friendship behind it.

From Shakespeare to Gene Kelly, Atlantic Classical Orchestra's opening program spans centuries of theatrical storytelling. Film scores by Copland and Bernstein frame works by two pioneers of cinematic music: Korngold's witty incidental music to Much Ado About Nothing and Rózsa's dazzling, virtuoso Concerto for String Orchestra— music forged in Hollywood, but grounded in the symphonic tradition.

The Mouse & The Mustache
Director Marcia Milgrom Dodge
Written by Anthony Dodge
Two artistic giants—Walt Disney and Salvador Dalí—meet in 1946 Hollywood and embark on an unlikely creative partnership. United by curiosity and ambition, they set out to create the animated short Destino, blending Disney's gift for storytelling with Dalí's surrealist vision. At the heart of their collaboration is a poetic love story between Chronos, the personification of time, and a mortal woman, unfolding in a dreamscape of melting clocks and shifting landscapes. As sketches multiply and imaginations collide, artistic passion meets practical reality. Though financial pressures halt the project, the unfinished film becomes legend. Decades later, Destino is finally completed, honoring a daring fusion of mass culture and avant-garde art—and celebrating the extraordinary friendship behind it.

On the Town - A Musical
Director Marcia Milgrom Dodge
Book and Lyrics by Betty Comden and Adolph Green
Music by Leonard Bernstein
Based on an Idea by Jerome Robbins
Three sailors—Ozzie, Chip, and Gabey—arrive in New York City with just 24 hours of shore leave and a mission: see the sights, find romance, and make the most of every minute. Chip follows his trusty guidebook, Ozzie pursues every pretty face in sight, and Gabey falls head over heels for a subway poster beauty, "Miss Turnstiles" Ivy Smith. The trio scatters across the city, igniting a whirlwind of comic encounters from the Museum of Natural History to the backseat of a taxi. As night falls, misunderstandings multiply and a parade of police, professors, and fiancés chase the sailors through Manhattan. When Gabey finally finds Ivy at Coney Island, chaos erupts and dawn arrives all too soon. With forgiven hearts and fleeting romances, the sailors head back to sea—just as a new trio arrives, ready to paint the town all over again.

When the stock market crashes and Mame loses her fortune, she tries, with comically disastrous results, to find a job for the first time in her life, but perseveres with humor and style. Jerry Herman's delightful score is packed with musical favorites "Bosom Buddies," "We Need a Little Christmas," "Open a New Window," "Mame," and more.

5-week course: Origins & Early History of Opera
Dr. Benjamin Taggie & Herb Hinkle will focus on some of the crown jewels of early opera before moving on to the late 19th Century. Even if you are a non-opera lover and know little about it, you'll find plenty to enjoy as they assess the dynamic and diverse historical settings in which these operas were created. They'll look at the biographies of each composer as well as the art, literature and politics surrounding each masterpiece including Monteverde's late Renaissance epic Orpheus (1607), several early Baroque operas, Handel's Julius Caesar (1724), Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro (1786), Wagner's Die Meistersingers (1868) and Puccini's Tosca (1899).

American Masters: Marsalis, Ellington & Thomas
3pm, Vero Beach High School Performing Arts Center
Three distinct voices in a program built on rhythm, storytelling, and unmistakable character. Omar Thomas' Come Sunday opens with a two-part journey rooted in the sound and spirit of Black worship. Duke Ellington's Three Black Kings follows with swagger, soul, and a profound sense of history — a brass-forward salute that places Martin Luther King Jr. alongside the biblical kings Balthazar and Solomon, honoring leadership, resilience, and legacy in music that blends jazz, gospel, and orchestral grandeur. At the heart of the program is Wynton Marsalis' Violin Concerto in D major, performed by Evgeny Komarnitskiy, a bold and imaginative work that moves from drama and urban tension to blues inflection, theatrical wit, and exuberant dance. From the swirling energy of its opening pages to the off-kilter New Orleans character of the Rondo Burlesque, the languid blue notes of the Blues, and the propulsive joy of the final Hootenanny, the concerto is rich with rhythmic vitality, cultural memory, and unmistakable American character.

On the Town - A Musical
Director Marcia Milgrom Dodge
Book and Lyrics by Betty Comden and Adolph Green
Music by Leonard Bernstein
Based on an Idea by Jerome Robbins
Three sailors—Ozzie, Chip, and Gabey—arrive in New York City with just 24 hours of shore leave and a mission: see the sights, find romance, and make the most of every minute. Chip follows his trusty guidebook, Ozzie pursues every pretty face in sight, and Gabey falls head over heels for a subway poster beauty, "Miss Turnstiles" Ivy Smith. The trio scatters across the city, igniting a whirlwind of comic encounters from the Museum of Natural History to the backseat of a taxi. As night falls, misunderstandings multiply and a parade of police, professors, and fiancés chase the sailors through Manhattan. When Gabey finally finds Ivy at Coney Island, chaos erupts and dawn arrives all too soon. With forgiven hearts and fleeting romances, the sailors head back to sea—just as a new trio arrives, ready to paint the town all over again.

Mame
Mame Dennis is a larger-than-life personality living the high life in the Roaring Twenties in New York City. Patrick, her orphaned 10-year-old nephew, comes to live with her and she introduces him to an eccentric lifestyle and madcap cast of characters. When the stock market crashes and Mame loses her fortune, she tries, with comically disastrous results, to find a job for the first time in her life, but perseveres with humor and style. Jerry Herman's delightful score is packed with musical favorites "Bosom Buddies," "We Need a Little Christmas," "Open a New Window," "Mame," and more.

Book by Craig Lucas
Lyrics and Music by Adam Guettel
Co-Production with Palm Beach Drama Works
Set in 1950s Italy, The Light in the Piazza follows Margaret Johnson and her daughter Clara as a summer trip to Florence changes their lives. When a breeze carries Clara's hat into the hands of a young Italian, Fabrizio, an immediate romance blossoms. Margaret watches anxiously, aware of a secret that shapes Clara's world: a childhood brain injury that left her emotionally fragile and uniquely innocent. As love deepens between Clara and Fabrizio, Margaret must confront her fears, her own loneliness, and the tension between protection and possibility. Cultural differences and family expectations collide, leading to heartbreak, revelation, and hard-won understanding. In the end, Margaret finds the courage to trust in love's imperfect beauty, allowing Clara to step into a future illuminated by hope.

5-week course: Origins & Early History of Opera
Dr. Benjamin Taggie & Herb Hinkle will focus on some of the crown jewels of early opera before moving on to the late 19th Century. Even if you are a non-opera lover and know little about it, you'll find plenty to enjoy as they assess the dynamic and diverse historical settings in which these operas were created. They'll look at the biographies of each composer as well as the art, literature and politics surrounding each masterpiece including Monteverde's late Renaissance epic Orpheus (1607), several early Baroque operas, Handel's Julius Caesar (1724), Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro (1786), Wagner's Die Meistersingers (1868) and Puccini's Tosca (1899). Book by Craig Lucas
Lyrics and Music by Adam Guettel
Co-Production with Palm Beach Drama Works. Set in 1950s Italy, The Light in the Piazza follows Margaret Johnson and her daughter Clara as a summer trip to Florence changes their lives. When a breeze carries Clara's hat into the hands of a young Italian, Fabrizio, an immediate romance blossoms. Margaret watches anxiously, aware of a secret that shapes Clara's world: a childhood brain injury that left her emotionally fragile and uniquely innocent. As love deepens between Clara and Fabrizio, Margaret must confront her fears, her own loneliness, and the tension between protection and possibility. Cultural differences and family expectations collide, leading to heartbreak, revelation, and hard-won understanding. In the end, Margaret finds the courage to trust in love's imperfect beauty, allowing Clara to step into a future illuminated by hope.

Hairspary The Musical
Director Richard Stafford
Book by Mark O'Donnell and Thomas Meehan
Music by Marc Shaiman
Lyrics by Scott Wittman and Marc Shaiman
Based on the Feature Film.
Set in 1962 Baltimore, Hairspray follows Tracy Turnblad, an exuberant teenager with big hair and even bigger dreams of dancing on "The Corny Collins Show." When she lands a coveted spot on the popular TV program, Tracy challenges narrow beauty standards and the show's segregationist policies, quickly becoming a local sensation. But her rising star sparks rivalry with producer Velma Von Tussle and her ambitious daughter Amber, who are determined to keep things just the way they are. With the support of her friends—including Seaweed and Motormouth Maybelle—Tracy takes a stand for integration, proving that change is possible when courage meets heart. Bursting with infectious songs and high-energy dance numbers, Hairspray is a joyful celebration of equality, self-confidence, and the unstoppable beat of progress.

Camilo A. Rodriguez's Golden Jubilee celebration continues with a program featuring solo works created for Ballet Vero Beach. Starting with the first work ever danced on a BVB program, Aprés, and ending with a world premiere by the master choreographer himself, this program will feature Camilo passing on many of his signature works to a new generation of Ballet Vero Beach dancers. Don't worry, this is not a retirement gala; however, each performance will feature a festive toast with beloved Camilo. Cheers!

Noises Off
A fast-paced, high-energy farce that follows a troupe of actors rehearsing a disastrous play called Nothing's On. Slamming doors, backstage mishaps, and a wandering herring fuel a whirlwind of comedic chaos both onstage and behind the scenes. Mixing sharp satire with affectionate homage, the play delivers laugh-after-laugh through eccentric characters and absurd situations. Ultimately, it's a masterful comedy about the hilarious unpredictability of live theater.

Fall Collaboration
Since 2014, Ballet Vero Beach and the Vero Beach Museum of Art have joined forces to bring Vero Beach audiences unique, collaborative, immersive performing and visual art experiences. This season, we continue our expanded partnership by creating two unique programs for the Leonhardt Auditorium stage. Each program in the series will feature choreography by Ballet Vero Beach that interprets the vibrant exhibitions on display at the Vero Beach Museum of Art.

Nutcracker on the Indian River
A local holiday tradition, with a near sold out run last season in its inaugural run at Riverside Theatre, tickets will move fast. The production retains all the whimsy and magic of the original ballet but moves the action to the year Vero was founded (1919). From land crabs to manatees and river otters to bougainvillea, this production has become an instant classic that takes all the magic of the stage and uses that magic to both entertain and inspire.

From land crabs to manatees and river otters to bougainvillea, this production has become an instant classic that takes all the magic of the stage and uses that magic to both entertain and inspire.
