A Message from the Sheriff of the Miami-Dade Sheriff's Office

Dear Colleague,

Thank you for considering the Miami-Dade Sheriff's Office Training Center for your training needs. As part of the largest law enforcement agency in the Southeastern United States, our Specialized Training Unit has been providing outstanding, practical and innovative training programs for law enforcement since 1986. Our cutting-edge courses not only deliver outstanding classroom instruction, but also the latest hands-on exercises to ensure that all aspects have a real-life, scenario-based approach.

The course fees include lunch and the cost of all student notebooks and manuals, as well as select promotional items.

Each course addresses a topic of critical concern to our profession and is presented with the highest caliber of professional instruction. Students from all over the United States – and from more than 46 countries – have traveled to Miami to participate in our courses. Our instructors are drawn from throughout the world to provide the latest, state-of-the-art information. Each instructor is also rated for presentation skills, and only those with the highest rating are selected for courses conducted by our agency.

We recognize that many of these training programs are intensive; therefore, we are committed to providing an atmosphere conducive to learning and to personal growth. Our training staff is always on site to assist you – and to ensure your learning experience is second-to-none.

We appreciate your patronage, and look forward to the opportunity to serve you in the future, as we continue doing our very best to meet all of your training needs.

Sincerely,

Sheriff Rosie Cordero-Stutz

UNDERWATER POLICE SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

March 1 - 12 | $1950

LOCATION: Miami-Dade Sheriff's Training Center
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $244 Single/Double

Join law enforcement officers from across the nation in one of the most respected and sought-after public safety dive training programs available. Designed for officers who demand excellence, this intensive two-week course delivers realistic, mission-driven training that prepares participants for the challenges of underwater law enforcement operations.

Open to officers officially assigned to a law enforcement dive team, this course offers an unmatched combination of classroom instruction and extensive hands-on, in-water training. Officers not currently assigned to a dive team may also attend with prior approval from both their agency and the Training Institute Director.

Throughout the program, students will train in a wide range of specialized public safety diving disciplines, including:

- Underwater search/recovery operations and crime scene processing
- Underwater photography and video documentation
- Vehicle rigging and recovery from lakes, canals, and rock pits
- Lift bag operations
- Searching overhead environments, including cruise ships, for parasitic devices
- Zero-visibility, limited-visibility, and black water search techniques

Every training evolution is designed to simulate real-world public safety incidents, providing students with the confidence and operational skills needed to perform effectively in some of the most demanding underwater environments.

Florida law enforcement officers: This course qualifies as a salary incentive course.

Please refer to the registration page for prerequisite requirements, including the swim and basic skills assessment, required certifications, and mandatory equipment.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS INVESTIGATIONS

March 15 - 19 | $820

LOCATION: Doral Central Park
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $244 Single/Double

This intensive five-day course provides law enforcement professionals with a comprehensive examination of complex Internal Affairs investigations. The program offers practical instruction from experienced Internal Affairs investigators, prosecutors, and subject matter experts, providing participants with the knowledge and investigative techniques necessary to conduct thorough, legally sound, and objective investigations.

The curriculum explores critical topics, including police-involved shootings and the State Attorney's role in criminal prosecutions, in-custody death and multi-jurisdictional investigations, and investigations involving domestic violence, sexual offenses, sexual harassment, and hostile work environment complaints involving law enforcement officers. Participants will also receive in-depth instruction on investigative procedures, witness and subject officer interviews, case development, evidence collection, and comprehensive case file preparation.

Additional instruction focuses on the use of technology in modern investigations, including computer forensics, body-worn camera evidence, and proactive police corruption investigations utilizing advanced surveillance equipment and investigative techniques. Real-world case studies will demonstrate the effectiveness of these technologies and their role in uncovering misconduct and supporting successful investigations.

The course also examines the legal and ethical considerations unique to Internal Affairs, including Florida Officers' Rights, Garrity protections, police union representation, and ethics investigations.

Participants will gain insight into the important role mental health professionals play throughout the process and learn best practices for handling sensitive cases.

BLOODSTAIN PATTERN ANALYSIS ON TEXTILES WITH AN INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL CASEWORK WORKSHOP

March 29 - April 2 | $925

LOCATION: Miami-Dade Sheriff's Training Center
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $244 Single/Double

This course is intended for bloodstain pattern practitioners who have completed basic Bloodstain Pattern Analysis training and want to expand their foundational knowledge. Textiles are among the most challenging surfaces a bloodstain pattern analyst may encounter. During this workshop, attendees will examine how fabric composition, construction, and treatments affect resulting bloodstains. The course will cover appropriate methods for working with fabric evidence and include hands-on practical exercises to reinforce lecture concepts. A final practical examination will give students the opportunity to strengthen their BPA analysis and report-writing skills using clothing items.

The training will also include dedicated time for examining bloodstains in digital photographic case files, helping students improve their skills and better understand the limitations of these file types.

Toby L. Wolson is a nationally recognized forensic science expert with more than three decades of experience in forensic biology and bloodstain pattern analysis. He retired from the Miami-Dade Police Department, after a 33-year career as a criminalist and supervisor in the Forensic Biology Section.

Mr. Wolson has trained more than 2,000 professionals through specialized bloodstain pattern analysis workshops. His students represent a broad spectrum of the forensic and criminal justice community.

Mr. Wolson delivers engaging, evidence-based training that equips students with the knowledge and confidence to accurately recognize, interpret, document, and testify regarding bloodstain pattern evidence.

MARINE PATROL OPERATOR'S COURSE

April 12 - 23 | $1990

LOCATION: Miami-Dade Sheriff's Training Center & Pelican Harbor Marina

HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $194 Single/Double

Take your maritime enforcement skills to the next level with this intensive, hands-on certification course designed for law enforcement deputies and officers who are ready to master advanced vessel operations.

Participants will receive comprehensive, scenario-based training that builds the confidence and expertise required to operate law enforcement vessels in demanding real-world environments. Training progresses from controlled low-speed handling and maneuvering to advanced high-speed tactics, including figure-eight and serpentine maneuvers, preparing officers to safely and effectively respond in dynamic operational settings.

The course also covers:

- Dignitary escort operations
- Nighttime vessel operations
- Subject interaction and control
- Tactical vessel approaches and subject interaction
- Backing and precision docking techniques
- Florida boating laws and maritime regulations
- Channel and open-water navigation
- Vessel trailering procedures

ADVANCED FRAUD INVESTIGATIONS

August 16 - 19 | $775

LOCATION: City of Doral Police Training Center
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $151 Single/Double

Fraud is constantly evolving, and investigators must stay ahead of emerging schemes, technologies, and investigative techniques. The Advanced Fraud Investigations course provides law enforcement professionals and investigators within the banking and financial industries with the knowledge and practical skills needed to identify, investigate, and successfully prosecute a wide range of complex fraud cases.

Designed as an in-depth exploration of today's most prevalent fraud schemes, this course examines current trends, evolving criminal methodologies, and key fraud typologies affecting both the public and private sectors. Participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of fraud detection, investigative responsibilities, evidence collection, case development, and the judicial processes involved in bringing successful prosecutions.

Students will also learn how emerging technologies and analytical tools are used to identify patterns, uncover financial crimes, and strengthen investigations.

Instruction is provided by experienced investigators and recognized subject matter experts who bring real-world case experience from their respective specialties. Topics of instruction include contractor fraud, medical fraud, condominium fraud, deed fraud, human trafficking investigations, insurance fraud and staged crashes, bank fraud, vice operations, and other evolving fraud-related crimes.

Upon completion of this course, participants will have a stronger understanding of the investigative process from initial complaint through courtroom presentation, equipping them with the knowledge and confidence to investigate sophisticated fraud schemes in today's rapidly changing criminal landscape.

CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATIONS

August 30 – September 3 | $840

LOCATION: Miami-Dade Sheriff's Training Center
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $151 Single/Double

This intensive 40-hour Crime Scene Investigations workshop provides participants with comprehensive, hands-on training in the principles and practices of modern crime scene processing. Designed for practicing law enforcement and CSIs, the workshop includes the topics of crime scene safety, legal considerations, scene documentation, evidence recognition and collection, photography, impression and trace evidence, blood enhancement and detection chemicals, and the use of alternate light sources.

Participants engage in practical exercises and mock crime scenes to reinforce proper procedures, critical thinking, and attention to detail. Emphasis is placed on maintaining the integrity of evidence, following standardized protocols, and understanding the role of the CSI within the criminal justice system. Upon completion, participants will have a strong foundational skill set applicable to real-world crime scene investigations. This comprehensive 40-hour crime scene investigation workshop will provide lectures, PowerPoint presentations, handout materials, and hands-on practicums to ensure all objectives are met.

Sharon Plotkin is a highly respected crime scene investigator and educator with more than 20 years of experience in both the investigative and instructional aspects of forensic science. Throughout her distinguished career, she has trained countless law enforcement professionals, as well as contributed to forensic science textbooks, sharing the knowledge and practical skills essential for successful crime scene investigations.

HOMICIDE INVESTIGATIONS

September 20 - 24 | $895

LOCATION: City of Doral Police Training Center
HOTEL: InterContinental at Doral Miami, $151 Single/Double

Designed for both new and experienced homicide investigators, this comprehensive course provides an in-depth examination of homicide investigations from the initial crime scene response through successful prosecution. Participants will gain practical knowledge and investigative strategies from experienced homicide detectives, forensic specialists, prosecutors, and subject matter experts.

Students will also examine criminal profiling, offender behavior, case linkage analysis, violent crime trends, and the behavioral characteristics commonly associated with serial homicide offenders.

Specialized instruction addresses complex investigations involving domestic violence homicides, child homicide cases, police-involved shootings, in-custody deaths, and officer survival mindset. Additional topics include injury recognition, gunshot wound analysis, intelligence-gathering techniques, and the critical role proactive investigative units play in solving violent crimes.

The course also provides a unique perspective on the judicial process, guiding participants through every stage of a homicide case - from arrest and evidence presentation to the grand jury process and trial. Experienced prosecutors will provide an in-depth look at case preparation, courtroom strategy, and the elements necessary to build a successful prosecution.

Throughout the program, students will analyze multiple real-world homicide investigations, gaining valuable insight into investigative decision-making, forensic applications, and best practices that can be applied to future homicide investigations.
