

HARFORD

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The Harford Civil Rights Project

Presents an ONLINE EVENT to highlight civil rights, past & present:

Sharing Our Stories

WHAT:

a presentation and conversation about the 20th century African American civil rights movement and the work of HCC students on the project in the context of the 21st century civil rights movement, with audience participation

WHEN:

Thursday, November 12, 2020, 7-8PM

WHERE:

Online via MS Teams link:
free and open to the College and community.

CONTACT:

jkarmel@harford.edu
or 443-412-2105
with questions

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

Forces Day, Saturday, May 21.

Integration
Again In The Federal Court

and
in your repay it or raise the loan." Loeblein said, "Doctor, you don't know what you are talking about! Do you realize that to borrow a half-million dollars

Dr. Hsl,
firm later
Hirsh's com
was substant
James B. O
the House Aut
the Mayor and
gard to errone
tion of the Low Program which
vided to the Aeg
newspaper, and
more Sun, by May

A recent edit Aegis stated "The contention is that
of low cost housing
have to demolish
of inadequate hou
City's cost."

"This statement
utely false," explaine
"and has been explain
Mayor and the Council
least three occasions.
is that an equal number standard units must b inated (not demolishe
can be done by simp
stalling bathrooms in
of shacks which present
in Havre de Grace witho rooms and correcting
dilapidated conditions.
certainly this does no
that 120 homes will be olished. It really means homes must be improv

Owen continued,
states that the C
need 120 units.
most there ma
ities in the city

DECENT HOUSING: A civil rights picket carries a sign re questing better housing condi tions during a march in Havre (Staff Photos)

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4, 1968
Harford County
Pickets Return
As Promised;
Due Again
In Havre de Grace
For The First Time
Last Weekend
In the second weekend activities, groups of
marched in Aberdeen,
and Joppatowne Sat
Sunday, in protest o
cial discrimination
ment and housing.
Demonstrators
marched for an
Grace on Sa
their intent
until "5