

HERE FOR GOOD NEWS

Oh you wonderful people, look what you have done! With vision and hope and generosity and hard work, you have made First Universalist so very FAB: Flexible, Accessible and Beautiful!

GOOD for us! and GOOD for the world! THANK YOU!

CELEBRATION: Here for Good Potluck Party!

Friday 11/18, 5:30-7:30 pm.

Bring a dish to share. Anything!

EVERYONE is welcome, all ages. If you don't get around to making something to share, come anyway, there is room for you at the table.

We might even dance!

With deep gratitude for all that is First Universalist -(people, journeys, love, change, hope, food, music, silence, laughter, kindness, support, joy, growth, future, connection, reverence, inspiration) - let's celebrate the good we have created and made possible!

AND THERE IS MORE GOOD NEWS

- Our FAB new chairs (for both Sanctuary and Common Room) arrive this month. Prepare to be comfortable.
- Gathering Room floor – Oct. 24-28. It will be polished and tinted green. Oooo, nice! Then we'll move back in!
- Sound Absorption panels on walls and ceiling of Gathering Room – to be done by mid-November. Less acoustic discomfort!
- Want to learn more about the Here for Good project? A full color brochure is available in the church office.

For more information, connect with: Marge Titcomb, Pete Titcomb, Charlie Horstman, Frank Read, Sarah Witte, Anne Turner, or Dorothy McAloney. We will gladly share the background of the renovation project, and also welcome all support.
