THE ARTS

Footlights Theatre in Falmouth presents APPELL: The Other Side of the Fence, March 8 - 24. This production is a haunting account of a small gathering of Holocaust prisoners, brought to life with brutal honesty, recognizing that the stories of those who died - and those who survived - must never be forgotten. Tickets are $18/adults, $15/seniors, $10/children under 17. <http://www.thefootlightsinfalmouth.com/>

The Sacred Art of Storytelling with Rev. Dr. Mellen Kennedy is being hosted by the Concord Unitarian Universalist Church in Concord, NH on Saturday, April 21. As spiritual teachers and leaders, it's our responsibility and privilege to preach, inspire, teach, help, challenge and heal. We can do this especially effectively through stories. In this workshop we'll explore the differences between oral and written culture, the human propensity for stories (including some current research findings from psychology and neuroscience), the role of stories in religious traditions, and some fundamentals of engaging storytelling. Fee: $50. To register: <https://uuspringfieldvt.org/about/staff/rev-dr-mellen-kennedy/>
