

Leadership at First U: It's a win/win

"If you're like me, you join First Universalist for the sense of community, the generosity of spirit that's so evident and enriching; the opportunity to experience and explore your own spirituality. And, in time, you realize that among the congregation, there is structure beyond the walls of the church and the role of the minister, there's also the people who participate in leadership at First U. I find my role on the Board of Trustees and Member Services Committee to be meaningful. Sure, you take on some responsibility, but that's a good thing! It's rewarding, and you give back, too, a win/win. So, consider joining Member Services to be part of our outreach into the greater community, and to ensure our mission meets the needs of our members. "
