WORKSHOPS & EDUCATIONAL PRESENTATIONS

NEW ENGLAND REGION UUA NEWS & EVENTS

The New England Region UUA will be offering a number of workshops this Fall including:

- Aren't We Welcoming Already? is a workshop for congregational leaders and teams looking to deepen their commitment to and practice of being a Welcoming Congregation. Saturday, November 3, in Framingham, MA.
- Lay Pastoral Care Training is a skill-building workshops designed to develop skills in focused listening, pastoral presence and communication, and emotional intelligence. It also explores the nature of both lay and professional pastoral care, and the roles and boundaries of each, as well as how to build effective Pastoral Care teams in different congregational settings. Saturday, November 10 in Chelmsford, MA.
- Healthy and Vibrant Youth Ministry is a workshop designed for adults who work with youth, which could include Youth Advisors, Religious Educators, Youth Program Directors, and Ministers. Join other adults working with youth to learn more about the core competencies of healthy youth ministry, to dream beyond the Sunday-night-in-the-basement model, and to support the developmental needs of our youth in relevant, meaningful, and faithful ways. Saturday, November 17 in Needham, MA.

More information about these programs can be found at uua.org/new-england.
