

Eid Celebration at The Arabic School

The Arabic School, which we have supported through half-plate donations, has invited us to join their Eid celebration next Saturday, September 17, from 2-5 at First Parish UU church in Portland.

This is the big celebration of the completion of the Hajj pilgrimage to Mecca (which ends September 14 this year) and it sounds like they have an afternoon of fun and entertainment set up, especially things for kids.

There will be light refreshments and they said they would welcome us to bring cookies, etc., though certainly not required. Likewise, while we can wear whatever we are comfortable in, the teachers mentioned that this is an occasion they traditionally dress up for, wearing their fanciest clothes.

Grab a friend or get your small group ministry together and check it out!
