

MARCH ON AUGUSTA

First Universalist's Faith in Action Council is supporting this event, which reflects many of the values we hold. If you would like to go and are interested in carpooling, meet in the church parking lot at 9:00 AM on the 21st. See below for information provided by the event organizers.

Saturday, January 21, 2017 10 AM - 12 PM

This is a HUMAN RIGHTS MARCH. This is for the people of Maine unable to march all the way to White House, so in solidarity we will march to our State House!

We will be meeting at the West side of the State House in Augusta, between the State House and the State Office Building at 35 Commerce Drive.

This is a rally in support of women's rights, civil liberties and protection of the planet. This is an INCLUSIVE march, and EVERYONE who supports women's rights are welcome:

- Women & Girls & Femmes & GNC
- Men & Boys
- People of Color
- Immigrants
- LGBTQ Community
- People with Disabilities
- Climate Change Advocates
- ALL religious communities
- Anyone else who wants to come out in support.

The tickets on the eventbrite page are just to get a general idea of how many might be going. The map shows where the nearest parking is.
