

Address Teacher Vacancies with High-Dosage Tutoring

A Missouri Lunch & Learn Roadshow for District Leaders

Practical Strategies to Maintain Instructional Quality During Staffing Shortages and Reading Success Models

TEACHER VACANCIES

HIGH-DOSE TUTORING

SGTI SOLUTIONS

PEER LEARNING

Teacher shortages and instruction mandates are challenging student achievement across Missouri. Join district leaders to explore how Small Group Targeted Instruction (SGTI) and High-Dosage tutoring can help fill instructional gaps while maintaining academic growth.

October 5-8 | Four Missouri Locations

Discussion Topics:

- How districts are addressing teacher vacancy challenges
- Implementing high-dosage tutoring at scale
- SGTI models that supplement classroom instruction and enhance intensive reading intervention
- Leveraging technology to extend teacher reach
- Protecting instructional quality during staffing shortages

Learn From:

- Missouri district leaders successfully implementing tutoring programs
- High-dosage tutoring experts
- SGTI implementation specialists
- District peers sharing lessons learned

Event Details

 4 Days • 4 Locations

 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM

 Complimentary Lunch Included

 Networking + Peer Discussion

Choose the location most convenient for you.

October 5 | Cape Girardeau

October 6 | St. Louis

October 7 | Springfield

October 8 | Independence

Why Attend?

- Maintain instructional quality despite staffing shortages
- Explore proven tutoring implementation models
- Gain practical staffing and scheduling strategies
- Connect with Missouri district peers

Register Today

Scan to Choose Your Location

