About Mass Liberation

Mission Statement

With empathy and enthusiasm—to educate and empower returning citizens with holistic, evidence-based interventions while engaging all communities to emancipate America from mass incarceration.

A nation without mass incarceration.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Mass Liberation is an organization in South Los Angeles County that helps individuals leaving incarceration to transition successfully back to society. Through our housing, community and learning center, and peer coaches, we offer:

- Employment services
- Lifeskills training
- Technology training
- Online learning
- Connection to resources
- Housing

Opportunities and Responsibilities

At Mass Liberation, you will receive the support and opportunities you need to succeed in your new life! Our courses cover topics in healthy relationships, total wellness, personal finance, and responsible citizenship. You will be responsible for using the Online Learning Platform and attending the courses that you and your Coach decide are helpful to you, and you'll learn at your own pace and at times that work with your busy schedule.

The Nest

The Nest is conveniently located in South Los Angeles County, right off of the 110 freeway and the Silver Line. At the Nest, returning citizens can work together on projects, find a quiet space to study or job search, use the Computer Lab, attend courses, meet with their Citizen Coach, meet with service providers, and participate in activities and hobbies that they're interested in.

Getting Started

All formerly incarcerated individuals over the age of 18 are invited to become a part of the Mass Liberation Community. To get started, ask your Probation or Parole Officer or a Community Partner to send us an email at enroll@massliberation.net with your name, phone number, and an email address if you have one. We'll contact you and schedule you for an orientation with us.
